

THE LIZBERRIES

A Tribute to The Cranberries

In the vibrant heart of Milan, The Lizberries came to life in 2010, beginning their journey to become the ultimate tribute to the iconic Irish rock band, The Cranberries.

This journey mirrors the footsteps of The Cranberries themselves, with a career spanning not only the vibrant Italian music scene, but also stages in Ireland, France, Switzerland, Romania, Croatia and the UK. With a voice that is strikingly close to the original and a dedication to authentically recreating the Cranberries sound, the band have earned themselves a distinguished place among tribute acts, solidifying their reputation as the best Cranberries tribute act on the global stage.

From the renowned Alcatraz in Milan to the prestigious Dolan's in Limerick, The Lizberries have graced stages that once hosted The Cranberries, creating an atmosphere where fans can relive the magic of the original band. Their extensive repertoire and faithful rendition of Cranberries classics ensure that audiences are treated to a mesmerizing two hour performance that captures the spirit of the legendary Irish rockers.

The band's connection to the Cranberries' hometown is evident in their four tours of Ireland, where they took center stage in the most significant venues, notably Dolan's of Limerick. The Lizberries' commitment to their craft extends beyond the stage, as they actively participate in national gatherings of the official Cranberries fan club and collaborate on initiatives with Cranberries Italia.

Looking to the future, The Lizberries are on the brink of creating a unique theatre show that delves into the history of the Cranberries. This ambitious project, in collaboration with an esteemed Irish Dance Academy and a renowned Italian DJ, promises to be a visual and auditory feast, offering fans a deeper connection to the Cranberries' legacy.

In the hands of The Lizberries, The Cranberries' music lives on, enchanting audiences with an ethereal voice and an unwavering commitment to preserving the spirit of one of the most beloved bands in rock history.
